FLORIDA PRODUCT COUNCILS

Florida Product Councils (FPC) are small groups of members in Florida who meet for a day of programming at the ULI Statewide Conference and a minimum of one other meeting each year. The FPC meetings consist of guest speakers, sharing best practices, case studies, round table discussions, and off-site private tours. There are currently five Councils:

Community & Housing Development
Hospitality & Recreational Development
Urban Development/Mixed Use
Multi-Family Development Council
Medical & Healthcare Development Council

The cost is $250 per year. For more information contact Carolyn Clark at carolyn.clark@uli.org.

FLORIDA SUMMIT

The annual Summit is a statewide Initiative hosted by all five District Councils in Florida. The committee plans programming, secures sponsorship and encourages attendance from North Florida. The 2017 Summit is being held in Tampa Bay on May 25-26.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PANELS

Technical Assistance Panels (TAPS) bring the finest expertise in the real estate, planning and development fields together to collaborate and address complex land use issues. Our Council has conducted TAPS for Wells Fargo, Jacksonville International Airport, HabiJax, St. John's Cathedral, City of Tallahassee and the Downtown Investment Authority (DIA) in Jacksonville. This committee defines the scope of work, selects the panel and prepares briefing materials for the two-day program.

URBANPLAN

UrbanPlan is a classroom-based curriculum that gives students an opportunity to discover how market and non-market forces in their community effect what can be approved, financed, built and tenanted. The UrbanPlan committee enables the success of the program by working with students at Nease, Episcopal and Leon high schools.
